

Photograph Terms & Conditions

Please note, that in purchasing images from the Hokitika Museum, you have agreed to the Terms and Conditions outlined below:

- Please note that the Museum cannot take responsibility for future storage of images or data on disk or on memory stick.
- Hokitika Museum grants permission to reproduce only for the occasion and use specified on the request form. A separate application must be made for any further use.
- Acknowledgement of Hokitika Museum must accompany the reproduction of any pictorial material, and should be so placed and in such a form that it is immediately obvious to the ordinary reader, user, or viewer.
- The acknowledgement should use the following format: The name of collection (if applicable), Hokitika Museum, followed by the photograph number.
- The caption should include the original photographer's name if known.
- The Hokitika Museum does not always own copyright to the items in its collections. Obtaining permission from the copyright holder before publication is the responsibility of the applicant.
- In order to maintain the integrity of the Museum's images, no manipulation of images is allowed without express permission from the Museum. Other writing such as titles or underlying text should not intrude on the images.